

Welcome to
New York City

Partner with the NYPD to keep NYC the safest large city in the nation

Here's what you can do.

- Be alert and aware of your surroundings
- Don't allow electronic devices to become a distraction
- Never leave personal property unattended, even for a short time
- Safeguard your valuables
- Report the loss of personal documents such as passports
- Report unattended packages to authorities

www.nyc.gov/nypd

www.twitter.com/nypdnews

www.facebook.com/nypd

www.youtube.com/nypd

SUPER BOWL BOULEVARD

Broadway (Between 34th Street and 47th Street)

January 29 – February 1, noon–10pm

Field Goal Kick

Where: Broadway between 45th and 46th Streets

What: Fans get an opportunity to boot a football through the goalposts.

Vince Lombardi Trophy

Where: Broadway between 43rd and 44th Streets

What: The AFC and NFC champions will battle it out on the field to earn the NFL's championship trophy, but you can take a photo with it just by showing up at Super Bowl Boulevard.

NYC & Company Welcome Center

Where: Broadway between 43rd and 44th Streets

What: Tourism professionals offer tips on all there is to see and do in the five boroughs.

Super Bowl XLVIII Roman Numerals

Where: Broadway between 42nd and 43rd Streets

What: Take a photo in front of the oversize "XLVIII" Roman numerals commemorating this year's game.

Toboggan Run

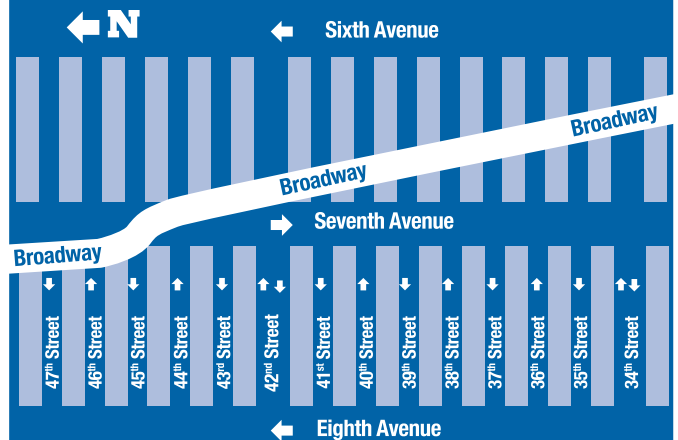

Where: Broadway between 40th and 41st Streets

What: Ride down a wintry slide in honor of the first-ever cold-weather open-air Super Bowl.

Autograph and Concert Stage

Where: Broadway between 39th and 40th Streets

What: Stop by for free autograph sessions with current and former NFL players (daily, noon–6pm), as well as concerts (daily, 8–10pm).

IF YOU SEE SOMETHING SAY SOMETHING™

For Police Emergencies

Call 911

For Non-Emergencies

Call 311

For Suspicious Behavior

Call 1-888-NYC-SAFE

NYPD

WILLIAM J. BRATTON
Police Commissioner