These real life love stories will unfold in front of the winning ice sculpture from the third annual Winter Ice Sculpture Show on Governors Island this past February 3rd presented by Times Square Arts and Governors Island Arts. The winning artwork was artist Lovie Pignata’s Smitten sculpture.

More details about the proposals:
• At 11:30 am and 12:30 pm, a diverse set of lucky lovers, will be surprised with a Valentine’s Day gift that they – and everyone else in Times Square – won’t see coming and won’t soon forget: a surprise marriage proposal will appear on Times Square’s iconic American Eagle billboard.

• Beginning at 6:00 pm, a celebration of love and commitment will take place outside on the iconic Red Steps in Times Square. The ceremony is free and open to people of all ages, genders, religions, races, and backgrounds and will include a live performance from a member of the cast of Broadway’s The Notebook. Those interested in attending can register here: TSQ.org/Vows.

All of the festivities will overlook the winning ice sculpture from the third annual Winter Ice Sculpture Show that took place on February 3rd on Governors Island by artist Lovie Pignata for Smitten. The winning sculpture depicts two cozy mittens with knit details touching to form a heart, referencing the beginning stages of love in the cold winter season. The sculpture will be realized as a large-scale installation carved by Okamoto Studio and will be on display for the Love in Times Square events and beyond until it melts.

Footage and images of the Valentine’s Day Love in Times Square events will be available upon request after the event.
