(Times Square, N.Y. – May 22, 2017) The Times Square Alliance today announced the return of Taste of Times Square, an annual outdoor food and music festival which offers visitors the opportunity to enjoy dishes from restaurants across the district and performances from a wide range of the city’s musical talent. Over fifty restaurants from Times Square will set up booths on the street and serve “tastes” ranging from $1-$6 on Monday, June 5, from 5:00 P.M. - 9:00 P.M. Organized by the Times Square Alliance, the event will be held on 46th Street from Broadway to 10th Avenue, including historic Restaurant Row.

“Taste of Times Square is a celebration of many things – great food, fun music, cultural exchange, and the incredible variety of businesses and people we have in the neighborhood,” said Tim Tompkins, president of the Times Square Alliance. “As the Crossroads of the World, people from different cultures come together here every day. At Taste of Times Square, we embrace the different cultural backgrounds of the people of our community and of our visitors in a remarkable exhibit of diverse culinary and musical experiences.”

Newcomers to this year’s festival include: Brooklyn Ball Factory, Burger and Lobster, Dim Sum Palace, Ice & Vice, Mighty Quinn’s, and Wafels & Dinges.

For the third year in a row, Taste of Times Square will showcase a Beer Garden on Restaurant Row (46th between 8th and 9th Avenues) featuring Times Square’s own Heartland Brewery.
Highlighted street musicians provided by the Hard Rock Cafe Times Square include: The Ebony Hillbillies, Baby Soda Jazz Band, Paul Mueller with a hammered dulcimer, Sean Grissom on the Cello, StreetMule, Mariachi Citlalli, and Yut and the Hot Four. Also performing will be blues guitarist Irving Louis Lattin, provided by B.B. King Blues Club & Grill, and interactive entertainers Drum Cafe.

The Entertainment Tent will feature the George Gee Swing Orchestra and swing lessons, made possible by Swing 46 and You Should Be Dancing.

Admission is free to Taste of Times Square. “Taste” tickets are $1 each and can then be redeemed for dishes ranging from 1-6 tickets at each restaurant booth. Tickets will be available for purchase on the day of the event and in advance online at
